

However, I will obey God's Wills not Follow My Righteousness

God gave what I must do in the school years and for the rest of my life: recovering true worships, healing ministry, and helping North Korea and other Ministries. However, I do not know tomorrow and the future. One thing that I know is that I must obey God's Wills, not follow my wills and righteousness. The Father gave the Word to me, "Enter through the narrow gate" (Matthew 7:13), when I started applying for the seminary. In this moment, the Father asks me that I should approach to him and go toward to him with magnanimity of faith and the complete obedience to God. My flesh is not mine, but belongs to God.

Heavenly Father,
I hope,
you make my center of heart go toward you, and you lead me to become a person who resides in you,
who resembles you,
who walks with you.

Because I knew already you,
I, a sinner,
no more turning back.

To face you,
is not for my righteousness, is not for seeking glory for myself, but, merely does take up my little cross in my heart, which you gave to me.

Please, let me deny myself, let me be empty from desires, so that,
with obedience of readiness,
I can go forward to you.

In Jesus Name, Amen

Bless the Lord, O my soul! Alleluia! (Psalms 104)
